Summary

I'm passionate about games and quality assurance, and I enjoy making sure software feels smooth, reliable, and bug-free. During my internship at Kristu Jayanti Software Development Centre, I learned the basics of frontend development and got hands-on with Selenium for automation testing. Right now, I'm diving into game programming through Unity's "Create with Code" course to build my skills in gameplay systems. I'm always looking to learn and help improve the user experience through solid testing.
